Location:
College of Natural & Applied Sciences/WPRTC – DOAG JVP PAC Island Crop

MINIMUM QUALIFICATION:
Education: High School Diploma or GED Certification.

CHARACTER OF DUTIES:
Under the supervision of the Research Associate III, the Research Assistant I will be working in the Tissue Culture lab with bananas, taro, and yam plants. The Research Assistant I is expected to work under the Tissue Culture program mostly at Department of Agriculture nursery and in the field. The Research Assistant I will be potting young bananas, taro, and yams from tissue culture to the soil, water them daily, fertilize as scheduled, and periodically transfer plants to larger pots. The Research Assistant I will be working independently and willing to learn about new varieties of bananas, taro, and yams. The Research Assistant I will occasionally help other field workers with maintenance (e.g., weeding plants) of the field plots.

EDUCATION:
Applicants claiming degrees or credit hours are required to have an original or certified copy of the documents (e.g. transcripts, high school diploma or GED certification) accompany the application.

WORK ELIGIBILITY:
Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant’s suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (e.g. previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant’s eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position within the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with the law.

POLICE AND COURT CLEARANCE:
Pursuant to Public Law No. 28-24 and Executive Order No. 2005-34, applicants selected for a position are required to provide original police and court (Superior Court of Guam) clearances of no more than three (3) months old prior to commencement of employment. Off-island applicants must obtain clearances from their place of residence. Applicants are responsible for fees associated with obtaining the clearances.

HOW TO APPLY:
Applicants must submit a Government of Guam Application Form to the Human Resources Office, located at the Administration Building, between 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Friday except holidays. Applications may be obtained from this office, or the HR website: http://www.uog.edu/hr (under Forms). Requests for applications may be directed to the following address: Human Resources Office, University of Guam, UOG Station, Mangilao, Guam 96925. For further information, please call 735-2350/1.
