Pacific Asia Inquiry

Volume 7, Fall 2016

Submission Guidelines

Deadline for submissions: May 23, 2016

The Pacific Asia Inquiry is a peer-reviewed, multidisciplinary journal published online by the University of Guam College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences. It features in-depth studies on the Pacific and adjacent Asia, particularly including the Mariana Islands and greater Micronesia. Contributors are invited not only to share their innovative research, but also to challenge extant positions and perspectives. Any theoretical or methodological approach may be employed so long as it is documented in a readable style of writing that is accessible to specialists and non-specialists alike. Please be advised that this is a venue for scholarly essays. Fiction and poetry submissions will not be entertained.

Submissions must adhere to the following:

- Do not exceed 10,000 words, including tables and references.
- Prepare manuscripts using Microsoft Word software with Garamond or Times New Roman font, size 12, double-spaced, with one-inch margin on all the sides, and full justification of lines.
- Follow the conventions of the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (6th ed., 2009), or the MLA Style Manual and Guide to Scholarly Publishing (7th ed., 2009).
- Indent the first word of a paragraph by half an inch or five spaces (one “tab”).
- Italicize phrases and isolated words in languages other than English.
- Number all pages consecutively, putting numbers in the lower right-hand corner.
- Figures, tables, and photos should be inserted into manuscript at the time of initial submittal, and they need to be appropriately titled, sourced, and numbered consecutively.
- Endnotes should be used and references should appear at the end of the paper.
- Do not insert automatic formatting anywhere in the manuscript.

If reviewers and the editor accept the manuscript, the author is responsible for ensuring that style guidelines have been followed in the preparation of the final version of the manuscript. Only minor editorial adjustments may be made during the final production stage. Articles are accepted for review with the understanding that they are not being considered, in whole or in part, for publication elsewhere and have not been previously published. Enclose a memo stating whether or not the essay has been published previously or is being considered for publication in another journal or medium.
