The Long View: Decades of Visual Storytelling

A presentation by Manny Crisostomo

About the Presentation

Guam's first and only Pulitzer Prize winner, Manny Crisostomo, is a tireless advocate and chronicler of Indigenous people and cultures of the Pacific, including CHamorus living in the Marianas and in the diaspora.

In this upcoming UOG lecture, titled "The Long View: Decades of Visual Storytelling," Mr. Crisostomo will be sharing his nearly 50 years of imagery. What he calls "a mix of photojournalism, artistic expression and living cultural anthropology."
