

UOG Accreditation Informational Session

The Importance of Accreditation

What is Accreditation?

Accreditation is a voluntary process that universities undergo to demonstrate that they meet certain standards.

In 1963, the university began their relationship with the Western Association of School and Colleges (WASC) Senior College and University Commission (WSCUC) as their accrediting body.

Reaffirmation of Accreditation

1. Self-Study
2. Institutional Report
3. Offsite Review of Documents
4. Conducts an Accreditation Visit
 - UOG: Wednesday, February 28, 2024 – Friday, March 1, 2024
 - NMC: Monday, February 26, 2024
5. Confidential Recommendation to the Commission
6. Commission Acts on Recommendation

Standard 1: Defining Institutional Purposes and Ensuring Educational Objectives

- Institutional Purpose and Integrity and Transparency

Standard 2: Achieving Educational Objectives Through Core Functions

- Teaching and Learning, Scholarship and Creative Activity, and Student Learning and Success

Standard 3: Developing and Applying Resources and Organizational Structures to Ensure Quality and Sustainability

- Faculty and Staff, Fiscal, Physical and Informational Resources, and Organizational Structures and Decision-Making Process

Standard 4: Creating an Organization Committed to Quality Assurance, Institutional Learning, and Improvement

- Quality Assurance Processes and Institutional Learning and Improvement

Benefits of Accreditation
