THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SOLICITS APPLICATIONS TO ESTABLISH A LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION (TENURE/NON-TENURE TRACK APPOINTMENT, FULL/PART-TIME, SUBJECT TO THE AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS):

#004-18 INSTRUCTOR TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (POLITICAL SCIENCE)

Location:	College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences/Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences
University Information:	The University of Guam is the premier institution of higher education in the Western Pacific. It is a land-grant institution, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior Commission. Located in the village of Mangilao on the island of Guam, the campus overlooks beautiful Pago Bay and the University's world-class Marine Biology Lab. The University has approximately 3,900 students, 90% of Asian or Pacific Islander ancestry, providing a uniquely diverse campus and multicultural atmosphere. As a regional, comprehensive, open admissions institution, the university awards degrees at the baccalaureate and master's levels through its two colleges and four professional schools. Over the next five years, the University will be entering an exciting period of growth linked to anticipated increases in military investments and resultant economic expansion in Guam. Three major University initiatives have been developed to maximize academic and community opportunities during this period: "UOG, the Natural Choice" to encourage local students to aspire to attend college and to choose the University of Guam; "UOG Green" with renewable energy and sustainability central to the initiative; and "UOG Leading Change" on Guam and in Micronesia. Extramural funding from competitive Federal sources as well as contracts is rapidly expanding. Such opportunities along with a critical mass of dedicated and capable administration, faculty, students, and staff make the University of Guam an exciting place to be for many years to come. Information on the University's campus security and fire safety may be accessed at http://www.uog.edu/hro (Under Links).
General Description:	The University of Guam is looking for an individual who is interested in new challenges and opportunities for professional and personal growth. This position calls for someone who is self-motivated and adaptable, intelligent, possesses a global vision and who is interested in working in a dynamic, multi-cultural institution.
Unit Description:	The Political Science program has three faculty members representing the areas of American and regional politics, comparative politics and international relations. Courses in political philosophy and methods are shared among faculty. The program has two tracks, Political Science, and Government for Education. It averages about 30 majors per academic year. Political Science courses also satisfy general education requirements and electives for other majors. The program is housed within the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences in the Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences, a 14 member division which includes Political Science, Geography, Psychology, Sociology, and Women and Gender Studies.
Character of Duties:	The successful candidate will be expected to teach both lower and upper division undergraduate political science courses. He or she will (a) teach a normal load of twelve (12) credit hours per semester, with one course load reduction possible with the Dean's approval, for research, instructional innovation, or large service projects; (b) maintain a continuous record of scholarly activity and research relevant to the Asia/Pacific region; and (c) perform university and community service. The successful candidate will be expected to teach an introductory research methodology course including quantitative and qualitative methods and upper division courses in international relations. Possible additional course assignments include: introduction to government and politics, introduction to international relations, political philosophy, politics of Asia and special topics in political science.
Qualifications:	Minimum: (a) Ph.D. in Political Science, International Relations or Government from a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent (appointment as Assistant or Associate Professor requires a Ph.D. by August 2018 but initial appointment as instructor is possible, contingent upon completion of the doctorate by the end of the first year of employment); (b) research or relevant professional experience in Asia and/or the Pacific region; (c) teaching experience in some of the subject areas listed above; and (d) Willingness to teach online. Preferred: (a) familiarity with issues of Pacific island societies; (b) experience teaching academically and culturally diverse populations; and (c) a record of winning grants.
Salary Level:	Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience relevant to the position. The following salary figures are for nine (9) months: <table border="0" style="margin-left: 40px;"> <tr> <td>Instructor</td> <td>$34,169 - $57,892 Per Academic Year</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Assistant Professor</td> <td>$39,473 - $68,237 Per Academic Year</td> </tr> <tr> <td>Associate Professor</td> <td>$43,703 - $77,498 Per Academic Year</td> </tr> </table> Compensation for employment shall not commence until all hiring conditions are met, including required employment visa. Work Eligibility:

Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant's suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (i.e., previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant's eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Should an applicant be convicted of any crimes other than a minor traffic violation, all applicable information must be provided in the form of a police clearance report and court clearance report. Failure to admit any felony convictions may result in immediate disqualification or disciplinary action.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position with the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with this law.

The University of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider.

The University of Guam complies with Public Law 24-109 in reference to the provisions and requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Assistance in EEO/ADA matters and inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and its implementing regulations may be referred to the University's Institutional Compliance Officer, located at the EEO/ADA and Title IX Office, Dorm II, Iya Hami Hall, Room 106, Telephone No. (671) 735-2244; TTY (671) 735-2243; or to the Office of Civil Rights (OCR).
