THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SOLICITS APPLICATIONS TO ESTABLISH A LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION (TENURE/NON-TENURE TRACK APPOINTMENT, FULL/PART-TIME, SUBJECT TO THE AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS):

#038-18 ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (SPANISH PACIFIC HISTORIAN)

Location:	Richard F. Taitano Micronesia Area Research Center
University Information:	The University of Guam is the premier institution of higher education in the Western Pacific. It is a land-grant institution, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior Commission. Located in the village of Mangilao on the island of Guam, the campus overlooks beautiful Pago Bay and the University's world-class Marine Biology Lab. The University has approximately 3,900 students, 90% of Asian or Pacific Islander ancestry, providing a uniquely diverse campus and multicultural atmosphere. As a regional, comprehensive, open admissions institution, the university awards degrees at the baccalaureate and master's levels through its two colleges and three professional schools. Over the next five years, the University will be entering an exciting period of growth linked to anticipated increases in military investments and resultant economic expansion in Guam. Three major University initiatives have been developed to maximize academic and community opportunities during this period: "UOG, the Natural Choice" to encourage local students to aspire to attend college and to choose the University of Guam; "UOG Green" with renewable energy and sustainability central to the initiative; and "UOG Leading Change" on Guam and in Micronesia. Extramural funding from competitive Federal sources as well as contracts is rapidly expanding. Such opportunities along with a critical mass of dedicated and capable administration, faculty, students, and staff make the University of Guam an exciting place to be for many years to come. Information on the University's campus security and fire safety may be accessed at http://www.uog.edu/hro (Under Links).
General Description:	The University of Guam is looking for an individual who is interested in new challenges and opportunities for professional and personal growth. This position calls for someone who is self-motivated and adaptable, intelligent, possesses a global vision and who is interested in working in a dynamic, multi-cultural institution.
Unit Description:	The Richard Flores Taitano Micronesia Area Research Center (RFT MARC), is a premier center for social sciences and humanities research in the Western Pacific and a major resource for material related to Guam and Micronesia. One of the goals of the RFT MARC is to publish, promote, and distribute materials of scholarly importance relevant to the region that will enhance the intellectual understanding and contribute to the instructional program at the University of Guam and other academic institutions.
Character of Duties:	This position will support the research, teaching and service missions of the RFT MARC and the University of Guam, with an emphasis on deepening our understanding of the long historical period of Spanish colonial influence in Guam and Micronesia, and with particular attention to utilizing and further developing the Spanish Documents Collection (SDC) of RFT MARC. This position will involve working collaboratively with local, regional, and international scholars in conducting historical research utilizing the SDC; enhancing access to and dissemination of materials in the SDC; and expanding the holdings of SDC through contacts with scholars and archives around the world. This position will also support the teaching mission of RFT MARC. The successful applicant will be expected minimally to teach one course per academic year, at either the graduate or undergraduate level, in support of the Micronesia Studies Program, Chamorro Studies Program, or the History Program.
Qualifications:	Minimum: Earned PhD in History or closely related discipline from a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent (applicants with foreign-equivalent degrees are responsible for demonstrating equivalence by submitting certification from Educational Credentials Evaluators Inc.); ten (10) years' experience in historical research on the Spanish Pacific period, with commensurate scholarly publications. Must be able to demonstrate an ability to work successfully in international and multicultural environments. Must be bilingual and fluent in English and Spanish and be able to demonstrate excellent capability in both written and oral communication. The successful applicant must maintain a continuous record of peer-reviewed publications relevant to Guam and Micronesia. Must be willing to teach online. Preferred: Graduate teaching experience in the area of Spanish Pacific history. Lived experience in Guam or other Micronesia islands. Demonstrated experience in cultural project development such as museum exhibitions and archival projects; demonstrated ability at successful research grant development.
Salary Level:	Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience relevant to the position. The following salary figures are for (9) months: <table><tr><td>Associate Professor</td><td>$43,703 - $77,498 Per Academic Year</td></tr></table>	Associate Professor	$43,703 - $77,498 Per Academic Year
Associate Professor	$43,703 - $77,498 Per Academic Year
	Compensation for employment shall not commence until all hiring conditions are met, including required employment visa. Annual salary will be prorated, if start of employment is delayed.
Appointment/Relocation:	The position is a (9) month faculty position, three-year tenure track or non-tenure track (1, 2, 3 year) contractual appointment. The University provides relocation assistance to new employees if hired off-island on a three-year initial contract. Provided are travel expenses for the applicant and the applicant's spouse (as defined by Guam Law) and children under the age of 18 by the least expensive and most direct air route from the point of hire and for moving household goods to Guam by the least expensive carrier up to 3,500 pounds for a family and 1,750 pounds for an applicant without dependents. Insurance of household goods, if desired, is at the employee's expense.
Benefits:	Fringe benefits include a medical and dental plan, life insurance, cafeteria plan (flexible tax benefit plan), and the Government of Guam retirement plan.
Application Process:	Applicants for University of Guam faculty positions must complete an online job application through the UOG's online employment portal at https://uog.peopleadmin.com . Please have the following documents prepared and ready to upload with your application:

Work Eligibility:

Submission of completed job applications authorizes the University of Guam to seek and obtain information regarding the applicant's suitability for employment. All factors which are job related may be investigated (i.e., previous employment, educational credentials, and criminal records). All information obtained may be used to determine the applicant's eligibility for employment in accordance with equal employment opportunity guidelines. In addition, the applicant releases previous employers and job related sources from legal liability for the information provided.

Should an applicant be convicted of any crimes other than a minor traffic violation, all applicable information must be provided in the form of a police clearance report and court clearance report. Failure to admit any felony convictions may result in immediate disqualification or disciplinary action.

Section 25103, Chapter 25, Title 10 of the Guam Code Annotated requires college or university employees to undergo a physical examination, to include a test for tuberculosis (skin or x-ray), prior to employment and at least annually thereafter. A report of such examination must be conducted by a licensed physician within a state or territory of the United States and must be submitted upon request.

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position with the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with this law.

The University of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider.

The University of Guam complies with Public Law 24-109 in reference to the provisions and requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act. Assistance in EEO/ADA matters and inquiries concerning the application of Title IX and its implementing regulations may be referred to the University's Director, EEO and Title IX/ADA Coordinator, Mr. Joseph Blas Gumataotao, located at the EEO/ADA and Title IX Office, Dorm II, Iya Hami Hall, Room 106, Telephone No. (671) 735-2244; TTY (671) 735-2243; or to the Office of Civil Rights (OCR).
