

DRAFT

College/School: College of Liberal Arts & Social Sciences
 Program Name: Anthropology

Recommendations	SVP	Implementation	Funding Source	Other Notes
Increase student enrollment in courses (especially courses associated with physical anthropology and some upper division courses; utilize Director of Integrated Marketing and Dean's Office for promotional help; offer attractive field study courses regularly).	√*	F06=147; F07=129; physical anthropology F06=7 and F07=4; upper division F06=20 and F07=17		Fall 2006 is the baseline year. In Spring 2006, the senior faculty member retired and two new faculty began in Fall 2007. This has been an adjustment period.
Increase number of Anthropology majors.	√	F06=7; F07=5		“ “
Review and update student advisement materials and procedures	√	One faculty member is working on the updating of the AN website
Develop a capstone course for majors, minors, and students from related fields, incorporating student learning assessment and using assessment results.	√	Not yet
Increase the number of peer-reviewed publications and scholarly contributions via the CFES plans.	√	Sp08 CFES reviews of all three faculty indicated publication activity, ranging from appropriate to outstanding.	OPSI	Faculty research and travel grants from College for two faculty members
Collaborate with the Dean to use non-appropriated funds to enhance supplies, equipment, and other program resources.	√	Program supplies, equipment, and laboratory space has been provided. Planning is underway to enhance equipment for visual anthropology and the archaeology lab	OPSI; student course fees
Collaborate with the Dean to develop and implement an Anthropology Program Assessment Plan.	√	No program assessment plan yet; individual faculty are conducting assessment studies
Continue the excellent field schools and international course projects. Develop and undertake other field school or community enrichment and service learning opportunities.	√	Anthropology participation in the Bali study abroad course declined; archaeology field experience on Guam increased
Continue the engagement of Anthropology faculty in graduate and interdisciplinary education.	√	New faculty, Dr. Douglas Farrer and Dr. Katherine Szabo are both active in the M.A. in Micronesian Studies Program. Dr. Gary Heathcote actively collaborates with Biology and Nursing.
Ground the planning for future program directions on data-driven needs assessments and using existing resources; e.g., using linguistic faculty talent; small community grants; collaborating with local professionals on Field Schools and other special training opportunities.	√	Collaboration with local professionals has been significantly enhanced in AY2007-08.
Collaborate with the Dean to request a third tenure-track faculty member.	√	The third AN faculty member was hired in Fall 2007: Dr. Katherine Szabo, archaeologist.	Local appropriation

* The SVP's Program Review recommendations were provided on 1/6/07