

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Patent, Trademarks, and Copyrights.

B. Sexual harassment (Quid Pro Quo)

C. Equal Employer Opportunity Act and American disabilities Act.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

What legal actions will be taken against

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The nature of laws.

B. The different types of cases.

C. The power of the courts and a little of the system.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

1) The rights of a partnership? For example

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

- A. I've learned that ethics plays a big role in business & law.
- B. About the ~~definition of negligence~~ ^{definition} definition of negligence, assault, battery.
- C. I've learned about arbitration & that the disputes are usually settle by a neutral, nonjudicial third party.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

How when I'm reading the chapters can I make

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Learned about copy rights & patents & how if something isn't copyrighted or patented someone can use a similar product for sale.

B. Learned about contracts and how it can be a verbal or written contract.

C. Learned about OSHA and how it is to ensure the ~~product's~~ safety & health of employee, ensuring they work in a safe environment.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

- What is going to happen to the Chinese company that put reliance

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. I learned that property owners are usually only required to warn licenses on dangerous on-premises conditions.

B. Also, a person who did not intend to do any harm may still be held to strict liability

C. The U.S. Supreme Court must hear all appeals made to it.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

The questions that remain uppermost in my mind are

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Utilitarianism

B. Copyrights, trademarks, patents of a product.

C. U.S. Constitution, Bill of Rights.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

How does the court select their jury?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. the different types of laws that we have in the U.S.

B. how the court system works.

C. ~~the~~ cases that we ^{read about} ~~learned~~ I learned to look beyond of what it is ~~about~~ about.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Ethical responsibility for businesses.

B. Different specifics of trials + their consequences (ie. criminal + civil, public + private, injunctions, etc.)

C. Laws and procedures to obtain/keep a patent, copywrite, trademark, etc.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

After reading the text over a few times the

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Constitution ~~is~~ the two types.

B. Statutes

C. Common law

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

If the American legal system were to be erased in anyone's

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. I learned about the Constitution and its separation of powers and the importance and limitations of the Supreme Court

B. I learned about how a case is presented.

you have to know its history, facts, how the case was solved in the past and the results.

C. I learned about defamation / the difference between libel and slander. / Different torts

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

I wanted to know what happens to those companies who

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. chapter 1 & 2 we learned about business law and the different types of laws

B. chapter 3 & 4 I was able to understand the amendments

C. chapter 5 & 6 we talk about arbitration and negligence

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

I did not understand chapter 8,

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Supreme court and state court jurisdictions

B. Corporate governance and the laws that it has to follow

C. Due process and other rights of Americans that could be used in the court of law

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

- What are military tribunals?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The Structure of our Judicial systems.

B. Elements of a case and
How to read it/ — facts, history, etc...

C. The Different laws that apply to protect people. & how the prosecutor has to prove beyond reasonable doubt.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Law can seem very intimidating. there are so many

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. That even a plaintiff can be punished for negligence in his claim.

B. I learned the many types of negligence of defamation ... even careless words can lead to ~~big~~ ^{extensive} legal consequences.

C. ~~Some people don't realize~~ The difference between a patent & trademark (important for aspiring entrepreneurs).

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

1) How do the courts determine whether a person found guilty of murder
The many terms are difficult to remember because there are

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. ~~I learned~~ What I have learned so far is that, there are many ways ^{a company} you can get sue because of their actions.
~~for the court function~~

B. I have understand how the 14th Amendment works, and how I can use it. ~~to~~ ~~back~~ ~~and~~

C. I understand the basic principle of ~~the~~ how the court function.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

As for now, there ~~is~~ nothing I can think of.

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Torts

B. copyright laws

C. Liability

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Although we just got into contracts, I find this

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. U.S. patents act requires that patents be registered.

B. If you were to print an article about a person distorting you can be sued. (Right, defamation)

C. Depending on the severity of a case it could be moved to another higher court

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

What other complex concepts of the law

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The 3 branches of the government: Judicial Branch,

Executive Branch, Legislative Branch

B. I learned that even though a stranger enters your house you can be held liable for their injuries.

C. If you have a pool, and your neighbor's son drowns because you did not put some kind of barrier, than that boy's parents can sue you.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Why are we liable for other person's negligence when they come to our home.

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. I learned that people take lawsuits to different courts depending on the case.

B. I learned how to read the case from who's involved, date, which court, etc.

C. I learned that before you are seen by the judge or go onto trial, you must follow & pass certain requirements.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

What rights do I have as a homeowner opposed

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. That everyone is entitled to sue someone although whether they win or lose is the case.

B. The process of dealing with a suit is if the judge who hears the case believes there's reason to continue.

C. There can be a settlement before going through trial.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

How would you determine your case has a chance

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Copyright

B. The important of the amendments.

C. Right of privacy

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Being able to distinguish what are right & wrong doings based on cases provided.

B. Knowledge of the steps that need to be taken ^{between two parties involved in a dispute} ~~when summoned by a plaintiff~~.

C. Knowledge of the different courts we have for particular cases to be for trial.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

None at this time.

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. 4th amendment - right to privacy, they cannot search your property without a proper warrant. 5th - due process 6th amendmen^t - right to a speedy trial.

B. defamation - one party taints the reputation of another. /slander/

C. Copyright - even if one has copyright over a piece of writing, movie, song etc, one can still use it to comment or or review or use for teaching purposes.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Jurisdiction - if a person commits a crime in one state but

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The court system is really complex, lots of procedures and many types of courts.

B. I learned how the constitution plays a big role in determining the outcome of lawsuits.

C. I learned alot from the case studies, it dont taught us the steps, and the many outcomes that come about.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Since alot of the decisions are based on the constitutional

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. When something has a copyright, someone else can not reproduce it.

B. A search can not be done without the proper documents. (search warrant).

C. That there are different types of courts. (state court, appellate court, federal court).

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Are shopping stores allowed to have a bag

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The laws against copyright and the consequences one faces when in violation of the law.

B. The importance of trademark and its relevance to protection rights for a company.

C. Using freedom of speech to force a message for the general public.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

I am currently interested in cases dealing with

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Types of Law (Constitution, Statute, common law, etc), rank of supremacy and Federal & State Court systems

B. Business Ethics, Sarbanes-Oxley act of 2002

and Gov't's regulation on commercial speech, taxes, & spending power

C. Charges for tort of negligence, infringement, the grounds for lawsuit & the defence for lawsuits

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

How does judges decide fair amount for punitive & compensatory damages?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The jurisdictions of the courts.

B. Long-arm can make me go to trial in another state, if it applies.

C. Federal supremacy means that federal law superceeds state law.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Why is it that people are allowed to sue major

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. how to brief a case. (Facts, history, issue, holding, reasoning, and result).

B. The three elements of a negligence claim.

The plaintiff must prove these elements to win a negligence case.

C. To convict a defendant, the government must demonstrate that his alleged acts violated a criminal statute and prove that the defendant committed the act with the intent to do so.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Why are there different standard to prove false and

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The different types of negligence

B. Trademark and Copyrights

(the importance and the rights they have)

C. Understanding the different cases

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Contracts come in various forms and can be legally binding.

B. Patents can be put on an idea or a process, not just products/inventions

C. Copyright owners have exclusive rights to the reproduction of the work and its distribution.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

How is the government keeping up with regulations, laws,

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. The different types of courts

B. Beyond a reasonable doubt

C. The 4th Amendment

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Torts

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. I got a better understanding of the U.S.

Constitution and our rights in the beginning chapters of the book

B. The process of how court issues are solved and what steps people take.

C. The importance of being ethical in

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Man

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. _____

B. _____

C. _____

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. Freedom of speech - because it states on the book that it has many restrictions. (e.g. commercial)

B. Intellectual copy rights - to protect organization & products.

C. Difference between criminal and civil cases.

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

Does political power or money can overrule

Please answer the following questions:

1. What are the three most significant things that you learned in class discussions of Chapters 1 through 8?

A. I LEARNED ABOUT THE PRIVACY ACTS ; I KNEW

INFORMATION ABOUT IT. BUT THINGS WERE MORE CLEAR WHEN DISCUSSING IT

B. I ALSO LEARNED ABOUT THE COPYRIGHT LAWS =

I DIDN'T THINK IT WAS SUCH A BIG ISSUE, BUT IT REALLY AFFECTS THE INDUSTRY BIG TIME

C. CONTRIBUTORY NEGLIGENCE

WAS AN INTERESTING TOPIC I READ OVER

2. What question(s) remain uppermost in your mind?

THE COPYRIGHT THING STILL GETS TO ME... IF THERE ARE IMPLEMENTED