ABOUT COMMENCEMENT

Academic Dress and Procession

The history of academic dress dates to the Middle Ages when many scholars were also clerics and wore costume of the monastic orders. In 1321, the University of Cambridge adopted specific styles and color combinations. American colleges and universities desired to adopt a standard code for academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. The standards continue to be followed by the American Council of Education.

The costumes worn today are all traditional and their colors, trimmings and patterns interpret the degree, the field of learning, and the institution that conferred the degree. The bachelor's gown has long pointed sleeves and is designed to be worn closed; the master's gown has an oblong sleeves open at the wrist. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has an arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves, is faced with velvet and has three bars across the sleeves. The color of the velvet is distinctive of the degree.

The hood tells the story. The type of degree bachelor's, master's, doctor's, is indicated by the width of the velvet edging and the length of the hood, the doctor's hood being the longest and of a fuller shape. The color of the velvet edging denotes the field of learning and the lining denotes the school that conferred the degree.

The color of the tassel, worn on the left side of the mortarboard, indicates the field of study and is gold for those with a doctor's degree. The colors you will see today in the hoods and gown of our faculty represent the various fields of learning: white, arts, letters, and humanities; drab, business administration; light blue, education; apricot, nursing; dark blue, philosophy; and golden yellow, science.

The academic procession is led by the grand marshal, who is the President of the Faculty Senate. A traditional order to procession is followed: First come the candidates for degrees according to the order in which the degrees are to be conferred; next, members of the faculty led by the faculty marshal, the honorary degree recipient and the other members of the platform party followed by the president of the university. The order is reversed for the recessional.

You will note that some of today's graduates are wearing a gold stole. This stole indicates that the wearer is graduating with academic honors.

The Mace

Historically, the mace was a heavy, spiked club used during the Middle Ages to break armor in battle. Today, the mace is an ornamental staff borne as a symbol of authority before a public official or legislative body. The mace of the University of Guam is made of ifil wood into which are carved ifil leaves. Ifil wood was chosen because of its performance, strength and value, all of which reflect the major characteristics of the University of Guam. The mace, designed by Forrest G. Rogers, was carved and donated to the University of Guam by the Department of Corrections.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

His Excellency Surangel S. Whipps, Jr. President of the Republic of Palau

Surangel S. Whipps, Jr. is the 10th President of the Republic of Palau, currently serving in the 12th Constitutional Government after being re-elected for a second term in the general election held on November 5, 2024. President Whipps remains steadfast in his commitment to improving the lives of Palauan citizens and advancing the nation's interests on the global stage.

As he leads the nation forward, President Whipps continues to uphold the principle of “A Kot a Rechad er Belau”—ensuring that Palauans benefit from the resources and opportunities of their own nation. He draws deep inspiration from the legacy of his father, Rekemesik Surangel Whipps, Sr., a respected statesman known for his efforts to increase the minimum wage, strengthen Palau's economic prospects, and protect the nation's marine resources. Rekemesik Whipps was instrumental in the “Save Palau” movement, which advocated against unfair labor practices, limited local career opportunities, the challenges faced by young Palauan entrepreneurs, and the exploitation of Palau's natural assets.

H.E. Surangel S. Whipps, Jr.
President
Republic of Palau

Upon assuming office in his first term in 2021, President Whipps prioritized public health and economic recovery in the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic. His administration focused on restoring the tourism sector, protecting the environment, and bringing international attention to the existential threats posed by climate change and ocean pollution. He also led efforts to diversify Palau's economy through technology and negotiated key provisions of the economic assistance component of the Compact of Free Association.

Now at the beginning of his second term, President Whipps is committed to continuing the progress made in improving public health, safety, education, and related infrastructure. His administration is expanding Palau's tourism markets, a strategy that is beginning to yield positive results with increased visitor numbers and new international routes—such as Qantas' new service between Brisbane and Palau.

Major capital improvement projects under his leadership include the construction and renovation of educational facilities, the development of a new national hospital, completion of a modern Division of Corrections facility, construction of a new fishing port, and enhancements to Palau's solar energy storage capacity to provide more reliable clean energy. Further investments are being made in roads, water systems, and power lines to support infrastructure growth, particularly in northern Palau.

Palau is the current chair for the Alliance of Small Island States. Next year, Palau will chair the Pacific Islands Forum. These two regional leadership positions provide an opportunity to promote ongoing efforts of Palau and other Pacific nations to address environmental and developmental challenges, including protecting the world's oceans from pollution and other harmful activities.

President Whipps brings over 30 years of experience in business management. Prior to his presidency, he served as CEO of Surangel & Sons Company, transforming it from a small retail store into a diversified enterprise employing more than 600 people. His dedication to community service is evident through his active participation in numerous civic organizations.

He holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration with a focus on Economics from Andrews University in Michigan and an MBA from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at the University of California, Los Angeles (UCLA).

A devoted Seventh-day Adventist, President Whipps lives by the values passed down by his father—building a God-centered home, prioritizing family, maintaining a strong work ethic, and promoting the importance of education.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

Lyrics by Francis Scott Key

Oh! Say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O're the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming.
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! Say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O're the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THE GUAM HYMN / FANOHGE CHAMORU

Ramon Manalisay Sablan, M.D. (1934)

Translated to CHamoru by Lagrimas Untalan

Fanohge CHamoru put it tano'-ta
Kanta I matuna-na gi todū I lugat.
Para I honra, para I gloriha
Abiba I isla, sin parat.
Para I honra, para I gloriha
Abiba I isla, sin parat.

U todū I tiempo I pas para hita
Yan ginen I langet na bendesion.
Kontra I piligru, na'fansafu ham
Yu'os protehi I isla Guåhan.

UNIVERSITY ALMA MATER

Music by R. Mannoni

On the shore of the Western Pacific
Stands our Alma Mater true.
We'll long retain the memories
Of the days we spent with you.
In the warmth of the island magic,
We will return some day.
Join in and sing a song of praise.
Hail, oh hail.
Hail, oh hail.
Our University.
