4. Program Change Request Women and Gender Studies Minor. Reviewed by UCRC (D. Gugin, Chair). Contact person H. Thompson (drhelent@gmail.com). Log no. 4361. Distributed October 12, 2011.

Background: This program change request is made to reduce the number of credit hours in the minor from 18 to 12. The rationale for this proposed change is stated as “the Program is streamlining its Minor requirements to attract more students to study Women and Gender Studies courses and to ensure that credit hours earned remain with the WG program.” The program faculty state that “the 12-credit hour minor covers a variety of experience in the field and provides students with sufficient knowledge and skills to earn an undergraduate minor”.

Review Process: This request for Women and Gender Studies Minor has received the following endorsements: CLASS AAC on October 7, 2011 and the CLASS Dean on October 11, 2011. The UCRC completed its review to not recommend on November 18, 2011. The basis of the UCRC’s decision is the requested reduction in the number of credit hours to complete the minor—from 18 credit hours to 12 credit hours.

Motion: To endorse the UCRC decision on the review of the Program Change Request for a Women and Gender Studies Minor, as contained in Attachment 13.
