THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SOLICITS APPLICATIONS TO ESTABLISH A LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION (TENURE/NON-TENURE TRACK APPOINTMENT, FULL-TIME, SUBJECT TO THE AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS):

#047-26 INSTRUCTOR TO ASSISTANT PROFESSOR (AGRICULTURE)

Location:

University Information:

College of Natural and Applied Sciences (CNAS)/Division of Agriculture and Life Sciences (ALS)

The University of Guam is the premier institution of higher education in the Western Pacific. It is a land-grant, a sea-grant, and a space-grant institution, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior Commission. Located in the village of Mangilao on the island of Guam, the campus overlooks the beautiful Pago Bay and the University’s world-class Marine Laboratory and Water and Environmental Research Institute of the Western Pacific. The University has 3,400 students, 47% of Asian ethnicity and 45% of Pacific Islander ancestry, providing a uniquely diverse campus and multicultural atmosphere. As a regional, comprehensive, open-admissions institution, the University awards degrees at the certificate, baccalaureate, and master’s levels through its two colleges and four professional schools. The University also offers a professional doctorate degree in Instructional and Academic Leadership (its first-ever online doctoral program) through the School of Education. The institution’s mission of Ina (to Enlighten), Diskubre (to Discover), Setbe (to Service) serve as the foundation for the institution’s Tulos Mo’na strategic plan, with its vision to transform lives and advance communities as a land-grant, a sea-grant, and a space-grant university. One of the university’s key strategic initiatives is to be recognized as a research university centered in Island Wisdom. Island Wisdom acknowledges that Pacific ways of knowing and Western models of higher education are central to the institution’s teaching, research, and service endeavors, and that balanced consideration of the ideas that emerge from them is essential to the prosperity and sustainability of island communities. Through its robust research portfolio fueled by extramural funding from competitive grants and contracts, the University delivers public value through dedicated and capable administration, faculty, students, and staff. As a complement to the research carried out at the institution, the University of Guam has an active press dedicated to publishing research and writing about Guam and Micronesia. A variety of publishing opportunities are available to UOG faculty, employees, students, and members of the communities we serve through the University of Guam Press. UOG is a safe and secure campus, where the institution places paramount importance on the physical, intellectual, emotion, and spiritual wellbeing of its students and employees. It fosters open dialogue and collegiality based upon mutual respect for diverse perspectives. The university has enacted processes to ensure the physical safety of the campus (most recent information may be accessed at <https://www.uog.edu/safety-security/>) and a policy that encourages open dialogue and respect for all points of view. Community responsive academic programs, robust research agenda, ample publishing opportunities, and commitment to community make the University of Guam an exciting place to be for many years to come.

General
Description:

The University of Guam is looking for an individual who is interested in new challenges and opportunities for professional and personal growth. This position calls for someone who is self-motivated and adaptable, intelligent, possesses a global vision and who is interested in working in a dynamic, multicultural institution.

Unit Description:

CNAS, through its ALS Division, seeks a talented individual for a full-time, tenure-track/non-tenure track faculty position specializing in Agriculture. The Division offers the Bachelor of Science (B.S.) degree in Agriculture and Life Science and the Master of Science (M.S.) degree in Sustainable Agriculture, Food and Natural Resources. The Division consists of faculty members of UOG agInnovation Research Center (Guam Agricultural Experiment Station) and Cooperative Extension who engage in research, extension and teaching in agriculture and life sciences of the main land-grant mission.

Character of Duties:

Teaching forms the main responsibility of this position. The selected candidate will serve as an instructor for agriculture courses within the ALS undergraduate, and Sustainable Agriculture, Food and Natural Resource (SAFNR) graduate programs (if candidate has Ph.D. degree). The candidate should have strong agriculture teaching interests and experience who will be capable of teaching the ALS program listed courses.

Additionally, the successful candidate will also be expected to conduct limited research that addresses regional priorities and challenges. This position offers the opportunity to shape the next generation of agriculture professionals while contributing to regionally significant research initiatives.

Applicants are encouraged to review the catalog (<https://catalog.uog.edu/current/>) to see what courses are currently offered. In addition, applicant should review the Faculty-Board Union Agreement (<https://www.uogfacultyunion.com/resources>). The successful candidate will be expected to take up this position by August 17, 2026.

Qualifications:

Minimum: M.S. in an agriculture discipline, agronomy, or closely related field from a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent for the rank of Instructor (Non-Tenure Track Appointment) OR Ph.D. in an agriculture discipline or closely related field from a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent for the rank of Assistant Professor (Tenure-Track Appointment); At least two years of teaching experience at the college/university level; Broad knowledge and training in topics such as, but not limited to: agriculture, horticulture, aquaculture, animal science, plant pathology, pomology, soil science and entomology; Demonstrated ability to teach introductory agriculture courses and labs; Ability to communicate, interact, and collaborate effectively with students, colleagues, and the community, both orally and in writing; Commitment to undergraduate education; Ability to mentor and advise students; Interest in curriculum development; Familiarity with student centered learning; Ability and

#047-26 INSTRUCTOR TO ASSISTANT PROFESSOR (AGRICULTURE)

Federal law requires presentation of eligibility to work in the United States within seventy-two (72) hours of reporting for employment. Specifically, 8 USC 1324A requires the employer to verify the identity and eligibility to work in the United States of all newly hired employees. The University of Guam is required to comply with this law on a non-discriminatory basis. If you are hired to fill a position with the University of Guam, you will be required to present valid documents to comply with this law.

Due to budgetary constraints, UOG is not able to pay the additional application cost of $100,000 as required by the U.S. Presidential Proclamation for any applicants that will require an H1B Visa to legally work at UOG.

The University of Guam is an equal opportunity employer and provider.

The University of Guam complies with Public Law 24-109 in reference to the provisions and requirements of the Americans with Disabilities Act.
