THE UNIVERSITY OF GUAM SOLICITS APPLICATIONS TO ESTABLISH A LIST OF ELIGIBLES FOR THE FOLLOWING POSITION (TENURE/NON-TENURE TRACK APPOINTMENT, FULL-TIME, SUBJECT TO THE AVAILABILITY OF FUNDS):

#059-25 ASSISTANT PROFESSOR TO ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (MICRONESIAN SEAFARING)

Location:	Richard Flores Taitano Micronesian Area Research Center (RFT MARC)
University Information:	The University of Guam is the premier institution of higher education in the Western Pacific. It is a land-grant, a sea-grant, and a space-grant institution, accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges Senior Commission. Located in the village of Mangilao on the island of Guam, the campus overlooks the beautiful Pago Bay and the University’s world-class Marine Laboratory and Water and Environmental Research Institute of the Western Pacific. The University has 3,400 students, 47% of Asian ethnicity and 45% of Pacific Islander ancestry, providing a uniquely diverse campus and multicultural atmosphere. As a regional, comprehensive, open-admissions institution, the University awards degrees at the certificate, baccalaureate, and master’s levels through its two colleges and four professional schools. The institution’s mission of Ina (to Enlighten), Diskubre (to Discover), Setbe (to Service) serve as the foundation for the institution’s Tulos Mo’na strategic plan, with its vision to transform lives and advance communities as a land-grant, a sea-grant, and a space-grant university. One of the university’s key strategic initiatives is to be recognized as a research university centered in Island Wisdom. Island Wisdom acknowledges that Pacific ways of knowing and Western models of higher education are central to the institution’s teaching, research, and service endeavors, and that balanced consideration of the ideas that emerge from them is essential to the prosperity and sustainability of island communities. Through its robust research portfolio fueled by extramural funding from competitive grants and contracts, the University delivers public value through dedicated and capable administration, faculty, students, and staff. As a complement to the research carried out at the institution, the University of Guam has an active press dedicated to publishing research and writing about Guam and Micronesia. A variety of publishing opportunities are available to UOG faculty, employees, students, and members of the communities we serve through the University of Guam Press. UOG is a safe and secure campus, where the institution places paramount importance on the physical, intellectual, emotion, and spiritual wellbeing of its students and employees. It fosters open dialogue and collegiality based upon mutual respect for diverse perspectives. The university has enacted processes to ensure the physical safety of the campus (most recent information may be accessed at https://www.uog.edu/safety-security/) and a policy that encourages open dialogue and respect for all points of view. Community responsive academic programs, robust research agenda, ample publishing opportunities, and commitment to community make the University of Guam an exciting place to be for many years to come.
General Description:	The University of Guam is looking for an individual who is interested in new challenges and opportunities for professional and personal growth. This position calls for someone who is self-motivated and adaptable, intelligent, possesses a global vision and who is interested in working in a dynamic, multicultural institution.
Unit Description:	The Richard Flores Taitano Micronesian Area Research Center (RFT MARC) is a premier center for social sciences and humanities research in the Western Pacific and a major resource related to Guam and Micronesia. One of the goals of the RFT MARC is to publish, promote, and distribute materials of scholarly importance relevant to the region that will enhance the intellectual understanding and contribute to the instructional program at the University of Guam and other academic institutions.
Character of Duties:	A faculty of Micronesian Seafaring requires expertise in traditional as well as contemporary Micronesian seafaring; a commitment to the continued practice and continued knowledge production and futurities of time-tested maritime practices and wayfinding skills used within the region; and a passion for education and community outreach. The qualified applicant will be prepared to teach courses in the UOG Micronesian seafaring certificate program, such as Micronesian Seafaring Systems, Micronesian Canoe Building, and Micronesian Canoe Carving. The selected applicant will provide lectures on Micronesian seafaring customs, including the rituals, manners, and routines that govern seafaring protocols and etiquette; the practical skills and procedures related to the building of seaworthy canoes and canoe structures; and on the stories, oral traditions, wisdom, and related knowledge that carry the history and philosophies of Micronesian seafaring practice. Research duties include developing educational content on Micronesian seafaring for use by students at different levels of education and in engaging in maintenance and futurities endeavors that document the history and practices of Micronesian seafarers. In addition, the selected applicant will actively promote and support the growth and expansion of local and regional canoe houses by fostering collaborative working relations with regional college programs and community organizations that support Micronesian seafaring to develop, nurture, and strengthen seafaring educational practices and programs, and by leading discussions about establishing a Micronesian Seafaring Academy at MARC that introduces Micronesian seafaring to interested students from K-12 through higher education. As a MARC faculty member, the selected applicant will contribute to MARC in instruction, research, service, and community outreach responsibilities.
Qualifications:	Minimum: A bachelor’s degree from a U.S. regionally accredited institution or foreign equivalent plus Pairourou designation and Pwo Ceremony, which are recognized as specialized certifications equivalent to advanced academic credentials in Micronesian seafaring, validated by UNESCO’s safeguarding of Micronesian wayfinding as intangible cultural heritage. Mastery of traditional seafaring rites through completion of Adjei or inaugural voyage. 5-10 years of providing instruction and training in Micronesian seafaring schools, demonstrating technical proficiency in celestial navigation, canoe carving, and canoe house construction. 3-5 years of both short and long voyages throughout Mutau-uol, demonstrating applied knowledge of wind/swell patterns, oceanic currents, and therapeutic plant use. Proven ability to integrate ancient and contemporary Micronesian seafaring traditions, including oral histories, chant protocols, and maritime rituals. Mentored 3-5 Maritime student interns/apprentices in heritage preservation, focusing on practical skills transmission. Demonstrated contributions
