

RECRUITMENT PROCESS

RESPONDENT DRIVEN SAMPLING (RDS)

- A group of participants (seeds) will be recruited and will complete the survey.
- Every "seed" will then be asked to refer up to 3 family/friends to complete the survey.
- Each participant will get an incentive for completing the survey, as well as an additional incentive for each recruit of his/hers that completes the survey.
- All participants will be asked to take the survey, recruit others, and upon completion, WILL be offered the same incentives.
- This recruitment process will continue until we have recruited 800 Pacific Islander adults in the project.
