

UOG PRESS VILLAGE BOOKSHELF COMPETITION

How do you express your village story?

UOG Press invites the Mayor's Council of Guam to compete in a contest for THE BEST VILLAGE BOOKSHELF!

Mayors' offices will be given a collection of local literature to feature on the shelf. Each village must then build or decorate a bookshelf that represents their unique village identity and pride. The top three bookshelves will win cash prizes and a special workshop event for youth in the village!

FIRST PRIZE: $500
SECOND PRIZE: $300
THIRD PRIZE: $150

Winners will be selected during the first week of Mes Chamoru (March 2023) and featured on multiple media platforms.

Village bookshelves will be judged according to the following criteria:

1. How well the bookshelf is decorated
2. How well the bookshelf tells the story of the village
3. How well the bookshelf showcases village pride
4. How easy it is for village residents to borrow or read books from the shelf
5. How well the mayor's office engages youth and their families with the bookshelf

To join, please contact Distribution Manager, Pedro Blas, at (671) 858-3280 or blas9049@triton.uog.edu.

