I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the writers of papers in this volume for their professionalism, patience, and perseverance as well as the attention and critical comments given to these papers by peer reviewers and the Editorial Board. Special thanks also are due to Drs. Mary Spencer and Anne Ames for their work on the book reviews for this issue and a particularly well deserved Si Yu'us Ma'åse' to our Graphic Layout Artist Leiana Naholowa'a for her critical work in formatting and helping to put this issue together. The Pacific Asia Inquiry has grown to be an important "home grown" source of academic and critical study and analysis of Pacific and Pacific surrounding issues and we hope that the contents of Volume 5 meet with your expectations.
